

Miguel Nino-Zarazua
Curriculum vitae (summary)

Research Fellow
Brooks World Poverty Institute, University of Manchester,
Phone: +44 (0) 1613066689; Email: miguel.ninozarazua@manchester.ac.uk

Qualifying Experience:

Miguel Nino-Zarazua is a Research Fellow at the Brooks World Poverty Institute, University of Manchester, where he is co-investigator of the cross-country research project: *Social Transfers and Chronic Poverty: A Policy Analysis Research Project*. Miguel holds a PhD in Economics from the University of Sheffield and an MSc in International Development from Bath University. He has experience in development research, in projects funded by the World Bank, International Labour Organisation, UK Department for International Development, and governmental agencies and non-profit organisations in Latin America, Africa and Asia. His current research interests are in the areas of social protection; poverty dynamics, microfinance and applied econometrics.

Employment: 2009 - Research Fellow, BWPI, University of Manchester
2007-08 - Senior Consultant, Sweden
2002-07 - Research Fellow, Economics Department, Sheffield University
2001 - Researcher, Proshika Centre for Human Development, Bangladesh
1999-00 - Consultant, World Bank
1997-00 - Manager of Economic Information, Industrial Development Bank, Mexico
1996-97 - Managing Editor, El Nacional, Mexico
1994-96 - Research assistant, Faculty of Economics, UNAM

Qualifications:

2007 PhD in Economics, University of Sheffield, UK
2002 MSc in International Development, University of Bath, UK
1995 BSc in Economics. (Hons) National Autonomous University of Mexico

Selected papers:

- Financing social protection for children through crises (with Barrientos, A.) forthcoming in: Development Policy Review.
- Will the green shoots blossom? A new wave of social protection in Sub-Saharan Africa (with Barrientos, A. and Hulme, D.) (2009) Background paper. IPD Task Force Africa
- Assessing the long-term impacts of social transfers. A quantitative approach (with Barrientos, A) (2009) BWPI, University of Manchester
- Microcredit, labour and poverty impacts in urban Mexico (with Mosley, P.) (2009) BWPI Working Paper Series, N0. 103. Currently under peer-reviewing
- The utility cost of group lending. BWPI, University of Manchester (2009) (under peer reviewing)
- The impact of microcredit on income poverty (2007) Sheffield Economics Research Paper (SERP), No. 2007005. (currently under peer reviewing)
- Improving Air Quality in Metropolitan Mexico City. An Economic Valuation. With Vergara, et al (2002) in: World Bank Policy Research No. 2785

Books

- Microcredit and poverty in Mexico. An impact assessment in urban markets. (2009) Berlin: VDM Verlag.

Languages: English, Spanish, Portuguese, Swedish